ROOSEVELT'S REPLY TO BRYAN.

ALSO PUTS A FEW QUESTIONS TO HIM.

Answers Specifically the Questions Put to a Republican and Then Asks Whether the Obligations of the Nation Would be Paid in Gold or Silver Were the Democrats Successful.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 12.—Governor Roosevelt replied to Mr. Bryan's assertion that the President asked for an army of 100,000 men two months before the Philippine war broke out by saying that the bill for an increase of the army was introduced by Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, a Bryan supporter, and was intended to meet the threatening conditions in the archipelago. "At the time the President's recommendation was made," said Governor Roosevelt, "a collision was imminent with the insurgent army."

Governor Roosevelt, in his turn, put these questions to Mr. Bryan:

"1. If elected, Mr. Bryan, will you pay the obligations of the nation in gold or silver?

"2. Will you refuse to accept the electoral votes of North Carolina because obtained without the consent of the governed and will you now at once denounce the action of your party associates who helped to nominate you for establishing by the constitution in North Carolina the doctrine that one man is good enough to govern another without his consent?

"3. Will you denounce your party associates in Congress who voted on June 1st last that the national government should not be given the power to control trusts?"

To the questions asked by Mr. Bryan in a Michigan speech, Governor Roosevelt made the following replies:

Question 1.—"If a trust is a good thing why does the Republican platform denounce trusts?"

Answer—The Republican party denounced the evils of trusts and pointed out the way those evils could be controlled and minimized.

Question 2.—If the trusts are a bad thing, why did the Republican administration allow more trusts to be organized than during all the previous history of the country?"

Answer—The Republican administration did not allow more trusts to be organized than during all the previous history of the country. The standard Oil Company, the American Sugar Refining Company and all the other more important trusts came into existence long before the present administration. Moreover, Mr. Bryan knows perfectly well that the national government cannot prevent the organization of these trusts.

Question 3.—"If some trusts are good and some bad, can you tell the difference between a good one and a bad one.?"

Question 4.—"Do you know of any good monopoly in private hands?"

Question 5—"Do you know any man good enough to stand at the head of a monopoly and determine the price of that which others are to use?"

Answer—Mr. Bryan's terminology is here so loose that it is difficult to know what he means. If he uses "trust" in the sense of large corporations, any intelligent man must know that there are some good corporations and some bad corporations and the difference between them can be told as readily as the difference between two wealthy private individuals. As for monopolies in private hands, patents are such monopolies and Mr. Bryan means that all monopolies are bad he means that patent laws should be abolished outright. Does he really mean this?

If not his words mean nothing.

Question 6.—"Do you know of any good reason why the army should be made 100,000?

Answer—Here again Mr. Bryan's language is loose. If he is speaking of the present army of 65,000 regulars and 35,000 volunteers, then every man who possesses an ounce of common sense or an ounce of patriotism must know not only that there is very good reason for having had it, but no possible excuse for refusing to have it. It has been needed in the Phillipines, it has been needed in China.

"Question 7.—"Would you be willing to make the army 200,000, if the Republican leaders said so, or a half million if they wanted it?"

Answer—It is hard to believe that this question is put in good faith, for no one has dreamed of asking for an army of 200,000 or a half million. No increase of army will ever be asked for by Republicans save because of reasons which would satisfy the people as they were satisfied in the days of Lincoln.

Question 8.—"What is your title to the Filipinos? Did you buy them or did you get them by force?"

Answer—There is, of course, no title to the Filipino, save as there is a title to the inhabitants of Alaska, or of the Hawaiian Islands. The Philippine Islands were acquired under President McKinley by treaty and purchased exactly as the Louisiana Territory was acquired under Jefferson.

Question 9.—"Do you think you can buy the right to govern people?"

Answer—This has already been answered in my reply to No. 8. Evidently Thomas Jefferson thought that we could buy the right to govern the Indians of the Louisiana purchase.

Question 10.—"What are you going to do with the Filipino when you get him? Are you going to kill him?"

Answer—We are not going to kill the Filipino until he tries to kill our soldiers and he will stop trying to kill our soldiers very soon after he becomes convinced that he will receive no aid in the effort from the party of which Mr. Bryan is chief. As to what we are going to do with him the answer is simple. We are going to civilize him.

JARVIS' WITHDRAWAL.

Says That He Has Found That a Majority of the Voters Are Looking Elsewhere for Their Candidate and Hence He Stands Aside.

A special to The Telegram yesterday said that ex-Governor Jarvis had retired from the Senotorial race. He makes the following announcement in the Raleigh Post this morning:

"When I announced my candidacy for a seat in the United States Senate, I thought it likely that a majority of the Democratic voters might desire me to be their candidate to represent the people of North Carolina in that great body. I have since learned that many friends throughout the State who might, under other circumstances, have supported me, have committed themselves to other gentlemen. It is now apparent to me that a large number of the Democratic voters are looking elsewhere for their candidate. I have no disposition to question the wisdom of their course or to contend against it.

Under existing conditions it would not be reasonable in me to ask further support from friends to whom I am already so largely indebted for their past kind services. I, therefore, beg to use your columns to announce to the public that I am no longer a candidate. This leaves me absolutely free to work for party success in November.

In thus eliminating my personal interest I wish it distinctly understood that I do not abate one jot or tittle of my deep interest in the success of the Democratic party. The Democracy of North Carolina ought to give Bryan and Stevenson a rousing majority and elect a solid Democratic delegation to the House of Representatives. It can be done if every Democrat will do his duty. I shall go forward to do mine, and I appeal to every Democrat to be at his post of duty until the closing of the polls. The election of a Democratic Senator is already assured. Now let us send nine Democrats to the House to co-operate with him.

THOS. J. JARVIS.

FOR COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

High Point Lodge J. O. U. A. M. to Circulate Petitions in Favor of the Measure.

Mr. D. C. Aldridge, recording secretary of the High Point lodge of the J. O. U. A. M., was in town yesterday, and informed The Telegram that his lodge had instructed him to have prepared and sent to the secretary of every lodge of the order in the State, petitions asking the next legislature to pass a compulsory attendance law of some kind. These petitions will be circulated first for the signatures of the members of the order, and then for signers generally. Mr. Aldridge said the lodge had the authority of the State organization to begin this work.

TRINITY-WAKE FOREST DEBATE.

Trinity Will Select Her Champions on the 20th—Will Have Regresentatives at the Vanderbilt Opening.

Correspondence of The Telegram.

Trinity College, Oct. 12.—The first issue of the Archive under the new management is out, and is a very interesting number. The Archive is under the supervision of the Senior class. The staff is as follows: Editor in chief, D. D. Peele, Gibson, N. C.; Associate editor, G. H. Flowers, Taylorsville, N. C.; Business manager, J. K. Wood, Asheboro, N. C.

Drs. H. P. Few and Edwin Mims will represent Trinity College at the Twenty-fifth anniversary of the opening of Vanderbilt university, October 21, 22, 23. Dr. Few will also attend the meeting of the Educational Committee appointed by the General Conference.

The preliminary contest to select speakers to represent the College in the debate with Wake Forest to be held in Raleigh on Thanksgiving will take place on October 20. Each institution will send three representatives.

The subject to be debated is:

Resolved, That the South Carolina dispensary system is unwise. Trinity has the affirmative.

Mr. A. P. Zeller, who is in charge of the department of Modern Languages, is a native of Germany, a graduate of Kansas university, and for five years a graduate student at Harvard university.

Mr. H. H. Wannamaker, assistant in English, was called to his home in South Carolina on account of the serious illness of his mother.

Prof. Durham delivered an address at Kenly. N. C. Thursday on the Twentieth Century Movement.

President Kilgo leaves Friday for Elenheim, S. C. to visit relatives.

Grocery Store Robbed.

Hungry thieves made a raid on Mr. C, C. Coggin's store, on West Lee street, last night and secured a quantity of groceries. Among the goods that have been missed were two hams, 50 pounds of lard and a lot of snuff and tobacco. The value of the stolen goods is between $10 and $15.

Signs of Robbery.

Early this morning 22 pairs of ladies' rubber overshoes were found in a ditch on the Southern Railway's yard, where they had evidently been dropped by some one. Thieves probably broke into a car during the night, and finding that they had secured something for which they had no use, left the rubbers in the ditch.

PAYING FOR SEPTEMBER WORK.

RECEIVING LAST MONTH'S WAGES.

By Next Week all Wages Due Miners of the Hazleton District Will Have Been Paid. The Joint Convention Assembled at Nine This Morning—Two Plans Submitted for the Best Way to Get a Solution.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Hazleton, Oct. 13.—Quiet prevails throughout the Hazleton coal region today. The Lehigh Coal Company and Coxe Bros. paid the men today for September work. The employes of other companies will receive their wages next week, and a majority of all the companies will by that time have paid all their wages due the striking miners in the Hazleton district.

CONVENTION IN SESSION.

Scranton, Oct. 13 —The joint convention of miners went into executive session at nine this morning, and believes that it will finish work tonight. There are numerous conferences of the officials of the united workers and also among delegates but when the convention went into session no definite plan had been decided upon so far as could be learned. As to what action will be taken in regard to operator's offer of advance in wages, two plans were submitted yesterday. One was that the whole matter be left to the committee, the other that national officers be instructed to find a solution of the complicated problem. This still finds favor among some of the delegates.

THE CIRCUS COMES TO TOWN.

The Longest Street Parade Ever Seen in Greensboro—A Good Performance—Typical Circus Weather.

Today has been a typical circus day in Greensboro. Early this morning a cold, drizzly rain began to fall, and the weather was very disagreeable, but this did not deter hundreds of people from standing on the sidewalks and watching the parade with interest and later taking in the circus.

The heavy train bearing Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' combined shows arrived from Danville during the night and at daylight began unloading. This operation, always the delight of the small boy, and often of the grown man, was watched by a large crowd of spectators at the Southern depot.

The parade took place at about 10:30 o'clock, and despite the cold rain, the sidewalks were lined with people. The parade was the longest ever seen in Greensboro, and probably the best. The long procession of men and women on horseback, cages and wagons drawn by teams of heavy draught horses, three or four bands, elephants, camels and wild animals all made a splendid showing. The horses were all fine looking animals, while the herd of elephants was the largest ever seen here.

A performance was given on the Whittington place, just south of town, at 2:30 this afternoon, being attended by a large crowd. The inclement weather kept many away. Those who saw it enjoyed the show and pronounced it very good.

Another performance will be given at the same place at 7:30 this evening, no matter what the weather may be.

A SPLENDID ATTRACTION

"Private John Allen" Witnessed and Enjoyed by a Large Audience.

A large and cultured audience witnessed the presentation of "Private John Allen" at the Academy of Music last night. Practically all the seats, both on the lower floor and in the gallery, were taken. Few, if any, better attractions have been seen in Greensboro.

The plot is very fine indeed and all the characters are well portrayed. Mr. Hanford, as "Private John Allen," is superb. Of fine appearance and attractive personality, he is well fitted for the role he assumes, and he enters into the full spirit of the character.

The entire play is one that can be appreciated and thoroughly enjoyed.

The piano used at the marshal's ball last night was an Alexander, manufactured by the Waterloo company. Judge W. H. Eller, with an office in the Southern Loan and Trust building, is the agent for this section.

MARSHALS' BALL LAST NIGHT

BRILLIANT AND PLEASANT EVENT.

The Climax to a Week of Gay Social Pleasures—Attended by a Large Crowd of Prominent Society People, Many of Whom Were Visitors—The Ball Room Was Tastily Decorated and Presented a Beautiful Scene—Presentation of the Marshals' Regalias—The Chaperones.

The marshals' ball at the McAdoo House last night was a brilliant climax to a week of gay social pleasures in Greensboro. The ball was attened by a large crowd of prominent society people, all of whom enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent.

The committee of arrangements—Messrs. P. D. Gold, W. G. Mebane and Howell Fry—did their work well, and to their efforts is due much of the success of the event. The large dining room of the McAdoo House was used as the ball room. It was tastily decorated with red, white and blue, which, with the dazzling lights and dainty and fashionable costumes, presented a beautiful scene.

Dancing commenced at 10:30 and continued until 2 o'clock. It was participated in by about fifty couples, many of whom were out-of-town people. A number of the couples first witnessed the presentation of "Private John Allen," at the Academy of Music.

The presentation of the marshals' regalias to the young ladies, which took place at 12:30 oclock, was an intersting feature of the ball. Chief Marshal William D. McAdoo presented his regalia to the chief lady marshal, Miss Pearl Balsley. Among the other recipients of regalias were Misses Bessie Miller, of Goldsboro; Alice Borden, of Wilmington; Lizzie Morehead, of Durham, and Marjorie Lyon, of this city. The marshals' colors were red and blue.

A number of married people were present as chaperones and visitors, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Ceasar Cone, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Menefee, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Holt, and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Leisel, of Charlotte.

It is seldom that so brilliant a company of society people is assembled, and a more pleasant event than the marshals' ball of 1900 has not been recorded in the social life of Greensboro.

AGAINST ATTORNEY BERNARD.

Shepherd Brings His Suit for Damages for the Ruin of His Home to the Supreme Court.

News and Observer.

In the Supreme Court yesterday the case of Sheppard vs. Bernard was argued.

This is an action brought by B. S. Sheppard, of Pitt county, against C. M. Bernard, United States district attorney, of this city, damages in the amount of $15,000 for alienating his wife's affections and destroying his home.

The action was started nearly a year ago, immediately after Sheppard tried to shoot Bernard at Greenville.

The plaintiff in January filed a verified bill and swore to it, in which he recited the ruin of his home by Bernard.

By way of answer Bernard filed a dilatory plea asking for specified times and accusations, which of course Sheppard could not give, and upon this the case went to the Supreme Court.

In the meantime, however, Bernard continues to hold his office under McKinley and there is no investigation of the charges against him or deterioration of his influence and standing in the party.

How can such a party expect to gain strength and influence among decent people?

Southern Railway Officials Complimented

The officials of the Southern Railway at this place are highly complimented for the manner in which they handled the crowds attending the Fair. Trains with ample accommodations were run to the Fair grounds at intervals of every thirty minutes, returning on a like schedule, and everybody was well cared for. It would have been hard to improve on the service.

Taken as a whole, there was a marked difference in the personnel of the crowds that attended the Fair and the circus, the difference being in favor of the former.

The Judge in the admiralty case of D. H. Ward against the schooner Thomas L. (The judge directed the commissioner to proceed with the taking of testimony and taxed the respondent with costs. The big schooner was a derelict and Ward had libelled her.)

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

IN THE YEAR 2318.

A Londoner Some Eighty Years Ago Predicted Some Great Occurrences to Take Place Five Centuries Thence.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

When a person gets sixty years of age, he lives more in the past than the present or future. Hence, the past few weeks at home I have spent reading "The Pocket Magazine of Classic and Polite Literature," published in London by John Arlus, 38 Newgate street, 1818. The following extracts interested me, and if they do you, they are at your disposal:

FIVE HUNDRED YEARS HENCE!

[This is written as a peep into futurity, under the idea that if England, France and Europe generally have risen, and Egypt, Turkey, and Asia, have fallen, England and the surrounding states may fall, and their glory retire more westward, as that of the eastern parts have done; and thus America, in the end, rise to the splendor of a mid-day sun.] Signed * * * D * * * *

London, Oct. 1, 2318.—This place, once a metropolis, but now an obscure village, is daily becoming low in the estimation of its inhabitants and its neighbors. The small fishing trade, which is now the only trade exercised here, is incompetent to support much longer the few people who reside here. There is no other resource, as the ground for many miles around cannot be cultivated, it being a complete heap of ruins. * * *

Liverpool, Oct. 1, 2318.—Two vessels, laden with produce of Spain, touched here for water a few days since. These are the only vessels which have been seen here for above a month.

Edinburg, Oct. 1, 2318.—Last week, by a special order from the government, three men were executed in the new way (by hanging with their heads downward), for having the daring impudence to assert in the open street, in public violation of respect for the three great kings, that "America was the only country for liberty, and England was becoming desolate." * * *

Philadelphia, Oct. 1, 2318.—This city, so flourishing, lately added, by an act of the Assembly, thirteen new parishes, all of which are extremely well built, and every house has the excellent recommendation of being slatted with iron. The population of this place and suburbs, have been computed lately, and is stated at 2,000,000 souls. The markets here are kept in the strictest order, and no filth is seen about the streets. * * *

Washington, Oct. 1, 2318.—This large city, which was called after the name and in honor of a warrior, who lived more than six centuries ago, is now in the most flourishing state. We need scarcely mention more than its size. It, at this time, covers forty square miles, and being built on its original plan, of a garden to every house, it affords the best possible convenience to the inhabitants. There are three monuments here to the memory of Gen. Washington and his contemporary, that eminent philosopher and statesman, Benjamin Franklin. These are erected to remind the citizens of the means they used for freedom and independence.

New York, Oct. 1, 2318.—The progress of literature, which has been attended to so little for such a length of time, is now much encouraged. Upon an average, there are forty new works published every week in this city. There are twenty dailies, and forty weekly newspapers.

For Seasickness

It saves some people's lives to be seasick, because their system is in such a horrible condition, they need a thorough cleansing. If your system is clear of impurities you are not likely to be seasick.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt,

"THE 'SALT' OF SALTS."

will prevent seasickness and give you constant good health, whether you are at sea or on land. It tones the stomach, and makes Dyspepsia impossible. It keeps the bowels evacuated and the system clean. If you remain on land, try this and you'll be healthy and happy. If you are going on a sea voyage, take a teaspoonful of Abbey's daily, shortly before and during the trip. You'll never know what seasickness means. Among nervous people especially, seasickness is caused by the effect upon the nerves, of the peculiar motion of the ship. Read what an eminent physician has to say about the excellence and usefulness of Abbey's Salt in any of the above conditions.

DR. R. S. CARNAGIE, former Surgeon of the Allan Line S. S. Californian, says: "I find in Abbey's Effervescent Salt the best remedy I have ever known for the prevention and relief of seasickness. I never make a trip without a full supply of this really excellent preparation, which I use personally throughout the year, whether at sea or on land, and which I also prescribe to my patients as the best general regulator of health at all times. Its gentle aperient effect is one of its most admirable qualities."

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1900.

JUST LIKE HENRY.

Everybody knows Mr. Henry Blount, who so long edited the Wilson Mirror and dished out beautiful language with a huge ladel. Under his administration the Mirror was a weekly quantity of effervescent beauty. It referred to the visit of the most ordinary individual in a truly gorgeous Chinese fashion. Mr. Blount certainly published the most unique paper in North Carolina, but for some reason, he quit and went on the lecture platform. A well known college professor of Greensboro heard Mr. Blount lecture some time ago and wrote of it as follows:

"Chow Chow" is an appropriate name for Mr. Blount's delightful mixture of many of the spiciest things in wit and humor in literature and life and many of the rarest gems of thought and feeling.

Laughter holding both his sides was there to drive away the dull care. Tragedy in her sable robes was there to break open in human hearts the fountain of feeling. Beauty and her white-robbed splendor dazzled and delighted the eye of imagination and soothed the soul as the gifted and thrilling speaker spoke.

Now, our friend, the Professor, in this extract is giving Mr. Blount a pretty compliment, and no doubt Mr. Blount will the more appreciate it because its style itself is a compliment to him. But we will not give the Porfessor away.

We must say that ex-Governor Jarvis' letter of withdrawal is as square and frank a note as has been written in North Carolina politics for some time. It takes frankness for one to come out flat-footed and say simply that he has discovered that the people prefer somebody else, without making any excuses or sniveling about it. This reminds us that we like the platform of Hon. A. M. Waddell mighty well—that he would like to have the place if the people want him and think he's the man, if not he doesn't want it.

The Honorable Bob Taylor is wont to tell a story which concludes with this bit of indubitable fact:

"The world goes 'round and 'round,
And some go up and some go down."

Which truth was exemplified yesterday in the expulsion from the Order of Railway Telegraphers of Mr. W. V. Powell, who was for seven years its president, and was the big injun in the late strike on the Southern, by which so many members of the order lost their positions.

The national campaign has gotten down to "you're another" plane. Mr. Meiklejohn writes Mr. Bryan a letter, Mr. Bryan replies and Mr. Meiklejohn takes another whirl at him. Mr. Bryan asks questions and Col. Roosevelt replies, and everybody stands where they were at the start.

"A girl admires a man's strong will before they are married," says the Chronic bachelor. "Afterward she calls it stubborness."

Sillicus—"I shouldn't say he was a man of much strength." Cynicus—"Strength! Why, he hasn't enough strength to break his word."

"Some girls don't wait to meet their fate," says the Manayunk Philospher. "They go out looking for it armed with a search warrant and a dark lantern."

THROUGH LOVE TO LAUGHTER.

Lead your child through love to laughter,
Sorrow soon enough comes after;
Soon enough will real ills find it,
Let not false gloom blur or blind it;
Life has much of glee and gladness,
Smothering smiles in babes is madness,
Rather let them laugh and love it,
With God's smiling skies above it;
Joyous juniors love to caper,
Ills for them are thin as paper,
While the gladness and the glory
Fill life to its upper story;
Smiles for them are finely filling,
Though some tears each may be spilling.

Let them laugh, the years are flying
To where each shall know more crying,
Burdened with the cares and trials,
Sufferings and self-denials,
Which grow greater, stronger, bolder,
As their human slaves grow older.
Let the child laugh long and longer,
Let its love of glee grow stronger,
Better it should turn from troubles,
Laugh at iridescent bubbles,
Than eclipse its sunny gladness
In the atmospheres of sadness,
All too ready to bereave us,
And with ghosts of gloom to leave us.
Let your juvenile be jolly,
Lead him far from melancholy,
Harmless joys jar roof and rafter,
Lead your child through love to laughter.

I. EDGAR JONES.

AN AGED PENSIONER.

Hiram Cronk, the Only Man Survivor of the American War with England in 1812.

While many thousands of those who participated in the civil war still live and draw pensions, only one survivor of the war of 1812 exists. He is Hiram Cronk and is 100 years old. He lives at Dunn Brook, Oneida county, N. Y., and is the only pensioner of that war. He was born in Frankfort, Herkimer county, N. Y., of sturdy Holland Dutch stock, of the family which has become famous through its litigation to regain the Cronk estates in the fatherland.

While Hiram was still a beardless youth, his spirit was aroused over the issues of the war and he, with his father and two brothers, John and Jeptha, enlisted in the United States army and went to Sackett's Harbor, where he served for about 100 days. Hiram was so young and of such slight built that the other soldiers tried to joke with him, saying that if need be his father could pick him up and carry him into a place of safety. Such an act was, however, unnecessary, for in a skirmish with the British the youthful soldier carried himself so well and with such a military bearing that Capt. Davis, who had command of the troops, said that if he had a regiment of such soldiers he could go into Canada and fight the enemy on their own grounds. For his services Mr. Cronk receives a pension of eight dollars per month.

HIRAM CRONK.
(Only Male Survivor of the Anglo-American War of 1812.)

Mr. Cronk cast his first vote for Andrew Jackson and has continued to vote for the democratic ticket on down through the years, his last vote being for Cleveland. He is a devout Methodist, and often, while in conversation, will start out in a fairly clear voice on some old familiar hymn. It gives him special pleasure to have anyone listen to his story of his conversion and it is one well worth the time. A family reunion was held on his hundredth anniversary.

Tommy—"Pop, what is a confidence man?" Tommy's Pop—"A confidence man, my son, is one in whom wise people place no confidence."

No External Symptoms.

The blood may be in bad condition, yet with no external signs, no skin eruption or sores to indicate it. The symptoms in such cases being a variable appetite, poor digestion, an indescribable weakness and nervousness, loss of flesh and a general run-down condition of the system—clearly showing the blood has lost its nutritive qualities, has become thin and watery. It is in just such cases that S. S. S. has done some of its quickest and most effective work by building up the blood and supplying the elements lacking to make it strong and vigorous.

"My wife used several bottles of S. S. S. as a blood purifier and to tone up a weak and emaciated system, with very marked effect by way of improvement. "We regard it a great tonic and blood purifier."—J. F. DUFF, Princeton, Mo.

SSS is the greatest of all tonics, and you will find the appetite improves at once, strength returns, and nervousness vanishes as new rich pure blood once more circulates through all parts of the system.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. It contains no minerals whatever. Send for our free book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians for any information or advice wanted. No charge for medical advice.

IMPORTANT!

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1900.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

On and after October 15th, 1900, we, the undersigned, will do a strictly cash business. Our reasons are as follows:

1st. Absolute NECESSITY.

2nd. Laundry, the world over, is a recognized cash business and justly so.

3rd. Our accounts are necessarily small, and it causes an endless amount of confusion and expense to collect, besides losses each year in bad bills.

4th. All of our current expenses, such as labor, fuel, gas and supplies are cash, hence the stand we take is forced upon us. While we very much regret, in most cases, to exact the spot cash, yet we must treat all alike, and we see no other way out of the difficulty. We trust our customers will lend us their aid by stating when to return laundry and by being prepared to pay for same when delivered. Our drivers will have positive instructions to return to the laundry all packages not paid for.

We have on sale at office (for cash) coupon books from $1 to $5 which can be left at convenient place at home, so that on delivery of bundle the amount of laundry bill can be torn out by the driver.

VERY RESPECTFULLY,

A Day of Sun-Dogs.

The peculiar condition of the atmosphere over southern England and western France on January 11 gave rise to extraordinary exhibitions of solar halos, or sun-dogs, described in the scientific journals of both countries. The phenomena were very beautiful, the sun being surrounded with concentric circles and inverted arches showing rainbow colors, while mock suns appeared among the halos. They were caused by clouds of minute ice-crystals floating at a great elevation.

THE TWO SKIPPERS

Remarkable Rivalry of Capt. Davis and Capt. Davies of the Nellie B.

SOME few, some very few indeed, of the not numerous American lines of sea transportation have a system of retirement after long service, with the enjoyment of a life pension representing a fair share of the active wages last paid the retired mariner. This is far better than Sailor's Snug Harbor, for it does not interfere in the least with the ambition which every sailor thinks out in the mid watch, namely, to retire to a farm and raise things.

Theoretically this is all very fine; it is supposed to act as an incentive to faithful service over a long series of years, and to attach a man to his line, and, above all, to his own ship. That is just where the trouble comes in; the retired sailor gets so thoroughly attached to his own ship that he does not know enough to let go all holds and give his worthy successor a fair show. That is bound to be the case with the retired first mate. Just as soon as he goes on the retired list he schemes to get a passage on the first voyage of the old ship, in order that he may give the benefit of his advice to his successor, either his old second mate promoted up, or else some chief officer from some smaller ship of the line, who thereby gets an increase in pay. This is such an unfailing source of trouble aboard that the agents positively refuse to sell a retired mate passage on his old ship. This leads to a conflict of scheming intelligences, and sometimes the wily mate succeeds in getting into the cabin on that first pleasure voyage. Not, however, if he sticks to the simple-minded sailor's subterfuge of writing for passage for John Johnson, for no person can have much to do with the sea and its affairs without discovering the wear and tear that falls to that alias.

If by hook or crook the retired first mate can get off on that first voyage after his retirement, the prospects are bright that there will be a lively ship. He turns out in the morning, no matter what the weather, and he is promptly on hand to get his cup of coffee at the galley door before the hands turn to. The men for a time forget the change, and obey the old mate through sheer force of long habit, until at last some one happens to remember that mere passengers are not allowed to have belaying pins, and then the crew is apt to become cheeky.

Nor is the new chief officer disposed to take the interference in good part. His pensioned predecessor is only too glad to nose around and find a speck of dirt under the long boat or to discover a smudge of unwiped rotten stone on the brass work. He is sure to report it to the new mate and get a sharp retort for his officiousness. Then arise words which might be actionable ashore, and which even jar the stout sea air. The active mate is apt to suggest that passengers on deck are expected to have no views higher than ring toss and shuttleboard. And the mate emeritus is sure to retort that even passengers have a right to expect decks to be clean and not such a filthy mess. It is easy to see why retired mates should be prevented from taking pleasure trips on their old vessels.

Even if they are stopped from voyaging there is no way of keeping them off the dock. They know to a dot when the old boat is due in port again, and not cabbages nor turnips, nor yet the whole farm, can keep them away at that time. The station of a mate is at the bow when the ship is coming to her berth, and he cannot avoid the sight of his predecessor on the pier head, watching the mistakes he makes, and commenting thereon with great distinctness and corresponding vigor of expression. That is the one great joy of the retired mariner's life. It fills his soul with glee to watch his successor doing the things he himself did for so many years, and to feel the glow of satisfaction when he assures himself that the new man does not begin to come up to him in all-around efficiency.

But in all the annals of retired mariners there was never such a case as that of the two skippers of the Nellie B., a snug bit of a bark that sails out of this port. Her only master for a number of years was Cap'n Davies, who owned one sixty-fourth in her. Cap'n Davis, the same name except one letter, and leading to perpetual mistakes, was the master of another bark belonging to the same owners. This bark was burned at sea, and Cap'n Davis bought one sixty-fourth in Cap'n Davies bark, the Nellie B. Neither had what is really a master's interest, and both set to Fire Started by Snow.

A foreign exchange says that a snowstorm started a fire on the premises of a farmer living at Hebuterne, Belgium. He placed a quantity of quicklime near a shed on his farm, and left it there all night. In the course of the night snow fell on the lime, and the heat thus developed became so great that it set the shed on fire, completely destroying it and its contents.

WHIP AND PILLORY.

How They Are Applied by the Sheriff in Dover, Del.

Antiquated Modes of Punishment for Petty Larceny, Wife-Beating, Etc., Are Still Quite Popular in the Little State.

The recent whippings at the Delaware whipping post, at Dover, of criminals who have been indicted and found guilty by the court of petty larceny and other crimes where the post and pillory are the penalty, have created no little interest and talk. The efficiency of this mode of punishment for criminals has been discussed perhaps more than ever in the last few years, owing to the fact that there has been an effort made to have both post and pillory abolished from the statute books of Delaware, on the ground that they are a most barbarous and inhuman method of punishment of criminals; also because Delaware is the only state in the union which still holds to these relics of olden times.

Much can be said, however, in favor of the whipping post and pillory in Delaware. While not an absolute preventive of petty larceny, yet their success in this direction is appreciated by the law abiding citizens of the state, for the reason that seldom does a criminal, sentenced by the court for the larceny of chickens or anything else in that line to suffer 10, 15 or 20 lashes at the post before a crowd of several hundred people, come back for the second dose.

While undergoing the punishment of the pillory the victim is almost perfectly motionless, hardly being able to move his head or hands. In some instances, however, where the neck of the prisoner is small, he can move it enough to keep him from getting the cramp in it, as is often the case. There have been cases where a prisoner has chewed tobacco during the whole time of his incarceration, which is never less than one hour, and in aggravated cases sometimes is two hours. While in the pillory the prisoner is allowed to wear his coat and hat, which serves to lessen his shame to the eyes of the gazing public, who generally flock around the prisoner as soon as he is placed therein.

If the pillory were the only punishment inflicted upon the violators of the law at each session of the courts, little if any objection would be offered, as this part of the infliction is nothing compared to the whipping which immediately follows. The prisoner in this case is stripped of his shirt and coat, and, with his back exposed, his hands in iron cuffs, fastened with spikes, he leans forward hugging the post, as it were, while the sheriff applies the lash. The mark of the rawhide is plainly left on the culprit's back, who endeavors to bear up under it, but coming as it does in rapid succession and almost in the same spot, invariably he squirms and twists, as if to stay off the effects of it. When the last lash has been laid on by the sheriff the victim at the post gives a sigh of relief, as if a load had been lifted from his heart and mind. For cases of minor larceny the sentence of the court is not over 10 or 15; occasionally, however, when an old offender is arraigned before the court, he gets 20 or sometimes 30. The highest number ever given in Delaware was 60 lashes, but they were laid on lightly by the sheriff then in office. The order of the court used to be that a man should be whipped according to the gravity of his crime, to be either "well laid on" or "laid on light." This, however, is not observed here any more, but the sheriff uses his discretion in the applying of the lash, according to the enormity of the crime.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to moke you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., NOV. 28.

I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.
